AGREES NOT TO TIGHTEN GRIP ON GERMANY

Move Saves Breakup of Entente.

BY HENRY WALES.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PARIS, Nov. 19.—Premier Poincaré backed down on his demands regarding former Crown Prince Frederick William and the allied military control commissions tonight, leaving Great Britain a complete victory in the German situation.

Despite the standstill attitude expressed in M. Poincaré's Neully speech yesterday, M. Cambon, at the meeting of the council of ambassadors, today withdrew all his demands for sanctions and made over his proposed note to Germany, toning it down from an ultimatum to the mildest sort of reminder.

M. Poincaré's sudden decision for conciliation was reflected in the exchange quotations, francs, which were quoted at 19 and 45 centimes to the dollar at noon, strengthening to 15 and 16 centimes at 6 o'clock.

Declare Full Accord Reached.
The council of ambassadors discussed the matter for two hours this morning and then took a recess until tonight. As Lord Crew had not received final instructions from Downing street, the session was postponed until tomorrow.

However, it was admitted everywhere that a full accord was reached and that it is directly in line with what the British have consistently insisted: no sanctions and no ultimatum.

M. Poincaré has abandoned his entire position against the former crown prince, scrapping his delivery and punishment demands and accepting the British thesis that since the German government considers him a private citizen, the allies must do nothing more than to warn Berlin that the prince must not attempt to do anything endangering the allies' security.

$35,000 VERDICT FOR GIRL MAIMED BY AUTO TRUCK

A jury in Circuit Judge George F. Rugh's court awarded damages of $35,000 yesterday to the father of a 15-year-old girl who lost a leg as the result of an automobile accident more than a year ago.

In the suit, which was handled by Attorney Herbert H. Patterson, the girl's father, Nick Triphan, of 1907 South Marshfield avenue, had asked that the Peoples Fuel and Supply company be compelled to pay $75,000. It took the jury forty-five minutes to determine.

Spill was struck by a truck belonging to the fuel company, as she was crossing the street at 534 and May streets while returning home from a Sunday movie show. Testimony showed that the driver, Antonio Gersen, was proceeding on the wrong side of the street at the time of the accident.

ALCOHOL BLAST KILLS POLICEMAN

John McGonigal, veteran looker-keeper at the Warren Avenue station, was killed, the station was partially wrecked, and the entire neighborhood was shaken shortly before 7:40 o'clock last night by the explosion of six barrels of grain alcohol stored in a hallway at the rear of the building.

A spark from McGonigal's pipe as he passed through the hall is believed to have touched off the blast.

As a result of the accident Mayor Dever announced he will issue an order this morning directing that all alcohol, morphine, and other alcoholic liquids stored in public places be removed from every police station at once.

Yank Captain Gives Life to Save His Son

SENATE VOTES UNANIMOUSLY IN OKLAHOMA

Found Guilty of 11 of 16 Charges.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright: 1923: By The Chicago Tribune.)
HAMBURG, Nov. 19.—The hard luck Pendleton fleet of schooners lost another vessel, with all but two of its crew of eighteen, when the Grace N. Pendleton, an American four-master, which struck the Vogel sand shoals, off Cuxhaven, in the darkness during a heavy storm this morning, was battered to pieces by heavy seas today.

The ship, which was trying to make the sheltered stretches of the Elbe before a heavy northwester, ran ashore during the early hours of the morning.

Seas Reel Life Boat.
Its distress signals were seen by the life saving station at Cuxhaven shortly before 4 o'clock, and life boat crews fought their way to within a few hundred yards of the ship. On account of the heavy seas, they were not able to board it.

After three masts, with members of the crew clinging to the crossarms, had collapsed, one after another during the morning, Capt. Bothler of Gloucester, Mass., his 15 year old son, who was second engineer, a German steward named Wolweber, and an unnamed man still clung to the tip of the fourth mast, which swayed dangerously.

Heroic Captain Lost.
When a life line finally lay across this mast Capt. Bothler sent his son and Wolweber across to safety first. The captain and the other man intended to cross on the next trip, but before the buoy reached them the mast collapsed and both were lost.

Young Bothler and Wolweber are now in a Cuxhaven hospital, the only survivors.

Found Guilty of 11 of 16 Charges.

(Picture on back page.)
Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—J. C. Walton, fifth governor of Oklahoma, was removed from office tonight by unanimous vote of the state senate court of impeachment, after his trial on charges of corruption in office, neglect of duty, moral turpitude, and general incompetence.

A formal verdict ordering the removal was returned after the executive had been found guilty of eleven of the sixteen charges presented. The vote was 41 to 0.

Six of the original twenty-four charges constituting the impeachment bill were dismissed by order of the court.

Deny Motion for New Trial.
The court, by a standing vote, denied a motion for a new trial, which Gov. Walton's counsel had immediately after the verdict was announced.

The governor's removal was made certain shortly before 4 o'clock when the court, without a dissenting vote, found him guilty of abusing his pardon and parole authority.

Formerly disbarred, holding only one of the latest membership of the body, voted for conviction on its twenty-four charges, the first to be voted upon. Senator Jack Barker, who has voted consistently in the governor's favor throughout the sixteen days of the trial, was absent when the final roll was called.

SMOOT WANTS ADJUSTMENT OF WAR DEBTS

To Bring Matter Up at Conference.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Senator Smoot of Utah, who will be chairman of the senate finance committee at the next session of congress and a member of the world war debt refunding commission, is in favor of having the state department remind those foreign nations which have not refunded their indebtedness to the United States.

It is the present intention of Senator Smoot to bring the matter forward in the next session of the debt refunding commission on the ground that there is nothing else this government can do to do in the matter but invite the attention of France and other debtor nations to the fact that they have not yet settled, and ask them to send delegations to Washington to discuss the matter with our debt commission with a view to arriving at something definite in the direction of a settlement.

Senator Smoot did not discuss foreign debts with the President during his conference today, but it is understood the senator contemplates bringing the matter to the attention of the executive in the near future.

No date has been fixed for another meeting of the debt commission, which had its last meeting three weeks ago, and then adjourned subject to the call of its chairman, Secretary Mellon.

When the roll was called the clerk read the result and Chief Justice J. T. Johnson, of the state supreme court, who presided at the trial, announced the verdict.

"Guilty as charged" in Article 19, the chief justice said. More applause greeted his words, and brought a hearty reprimand from the marshal of the senate, who "threatened to clear the galleries if the order of the court again was disobeyed."

That followed in rapid succession verdicts on each of the remaining charges.

Voting on the Charges.
Those on which the governor was convicted in the order of voting were: That he exceeded his pardon and parole powers in order to permit his friends to collect large fees. Vote, 41 to 0.

EXPECT COOLIDGE TO BACK MELLON AGAINST BONUS

Financing of Compensation Called 'the Problem'

BY GRAFTON WILCOX.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Treasury officials confidently expect that President Coolidge in supporting Secretary Mellon's tax reduction proposal, will go all the way with him and oppose the soldiers' bonus. Republican leaders, whether tax reduction advocates or not, are convinced that it is going to be a difficult task to stop the bonus, even if there does appear to be general support for the Mellon tax cut plan throughout the country. If the bonus is to be stopped, in their opinion, the only person who can stop it is President Coolidge, and some doubt whether he could stop it. At the treasury department, the Mellon position is strictly adhered to with respect to tax reduction and the bonus. Financing of the bonus on a sound basis, officials say, will mean that the entire prospective surplus revenues of the government will be eaten up.

Friends of Bonus 'Miss Point'

Replying to house advocates who have pointed out that the cost of the bonus has been estimated at less than $100,000,000 annually, and that even on the basis of Mr. Mellon's own figures a tax reduction of more than $200,000,000 would be possible, treasury experts declared that the bonus estimates failed to make proper provision for a sinking fund to take up the twenty year certificates provided in the adjusted compensation bill passed by congress and vetoed by the late President Harding. Secretary Mellon firmly believes there would be no margin whatever for tax reduction if a bonus bill is passed, assuming that the treasury is to make its plans along sound business lines for the future payment of the certificates. He is opposed to a long term bond issue, as suggested by former Secretary of the Treasury Wil-

M. A. C. STUDENTS AND FACULTY DIG FOR NEW HALL

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Professors and students of the Michigan Agricultural College today laid aside their scholastic pursuits to become day laborers.

To the tune of lively music early this morning staid instructors tossed aside their coats, spat on their hands, and started picking at hard ground with pickaxes. Students, blistersed their palms wielding shovels. Canteens deserted, sorority houses and classrooms shivered on the side lines and dispensed coffee and donuts.

It was "excavation week" for the Aggies. For the next five days brava will be worth more than brains in this institution. Every man on the campus from President R. S. Shaw down has been drafted to do his bit toward digging the excavation for the proposed half million dollar union memorial building.

Against Bigger Public Debt.

Mr. Mellon does not believe the public debt should be increased in this manner, and he takes the position that, even if a bond issue were approved, sound business principles would demand that a provision for a sinking fund to retire the bonds be made, with the result that even this method of paying the bonus would require a considerable outlay annually. President Coolidge, it was learned today, has been closely watching newspaper comment on the Mellon program and has taken great interest in the daily White House correspondence. More than 2,000 letters formed the White House week-end mail which accumulated over Sunday, considerably more than the usual amount. It was stated by White House officials that the letters indicated an overwhelming endorsement of the Mellon program. Mr. Mellon also had received an immense number of epistolary recommendations.

Treasury officials point out that estimates made during the consideration of the bonus bill in congress did not provide any way of paying the bulk of the cost. The estimates by the house ways and means committee provided for a total cost of $4,067,119,056, of which $2,154,222,559 would be due and payable in the year 1947.

Under the house ways and means committee estimates the cost of the bonus bill the first year would be only $74,379,000, in the second year $124,440,000, in the third year $121,370,000, and in the fourth year $126,325,000. In the sixteen subsequent years the annual outlay would range from $42,026,000 to approximately $27,000,000.

The house committee estimates were made on the theory that 10 per cent of the veterans would be entitled to $50 or less and accordingly would receive cash, that 70 per cent of the remainder would choose adjusted service certificates, that 25 per cent would receive vocational training aid, that 10 per cent would receive foreign and home aid and that 75 per cent would receive land settlement aid.

Estimate in the Senate.

The senate finance committee figured the total cost at $2,845,659,455. This estimate was made on the theory that 75 per cent of the veterans would take certificates, 25 per cent farm, home and land settlement aid, and 25 per cent vocational training. The senate committee estimated that after deducting cash payments of $16,000,000 the additional outlay the first year would be $77,440,880, the second year $92,177,729, the third year $73,100,862, the fourth year $970,229,826, the fifth year $148,021,515, and the sixth year $197,544,284.

LIGGETT FILES BANKRUPT PLEA; ASSETS AT $100

John E. Liggett, former banking partner of Anthony J. Drezel Jr., in the firm of Liggett & Drezel, 61 Broadway, New York, reported to be a millionaire, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy yesterday in the district court, giving his liabilities as $253,359 and his assets as $100.

In the petition, Mr. Liggett gave his occupation as "salesman," and his address as Chicago. His attorney, C. W. Armstrong, 29 South La Salle street, stated that he did not know his client's local address.

Several Notes Are Listed.

Indorsing accommodation paper for clients of Liggett & Drezel, bond and mortgage brokers, is given as the principal cause of the bankruptcy. Several notes, totaling $237,000, due New York City and banks in New England, are listed. Unsecured claims, consisting mostly of merchandise purchased from New York firms, are scheduled at $14,859.

Mr. Liggett recently was sued by his wealthy wife, Violet Conly Liggett, in a New York court for $55,267, which she alleges was due her for securities, jewelry, and cash loaned to the firm of Liggett & Drezel to assist it over difficulties in 1918 and 1919. ENGLAND, FRANCE GRAB LANDS OF NEGRO REPUBLIC

Liberia Sinking Into Vice,
Debt and Lazy Politics.

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.
(Chicago Tribune Feature Service.)
(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)
MONROVIA, Liberia, Nov. 19.—(Tribune Radio.)—Africa's lone spark of republicanism is burning low. The independent Negro republic of Liberia is again facing a crisis threatening its very existence.

England and France are pressing close against the frontiers with eyes on the rich interior and each on the other. English and German shipping controls the commerce. France controls the cable and wireless and American officers control the finance and military. The external revenues are in the hands of an international receivership.

The government is in debt to British banks for current expenses. The administration has not paid salaries since April. Production is practically at a standstill.

Reason for Slay.
Liberia's life as a sovereign state is suspended today by two slender threads. The European belief in America's sentimental interest in the Negro republic is one. The other is the European occupation in pressing continental affairs.

Liberian statesmanship has saved the country a number of times during

TALKS FROM AIRPLANE TO WIFE IN HOSPITAL OVER NEW RADIOPHONE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—Lieut. Harold Harris, commanding officer of the Bunting bomber, largest United States airplane, talked to his wife, who is ill in a local hospital, over a new radiophone device as the bomber circled over the hospital today. A radio receiving set had been put up in Mrs. Harris' room.

"I'm O. K.," said Lieut. Harris. "I hope you are getting along all right. Have courage."

Other radio fans here said they heard Lieut. Harris say the crew was trying out a new device and requested that the commanding officer at the Dayton flying field be notified if they picked up any of the messages.

The past century and deserves much credit for its successful diplomatic juggling, by which it has played off one aggressor against another, but the country cannot continue to exist on diplomatic alone. Liberia's greatest trouble today is politics and political class.

With 250 miles of Atlantic coast line and an area of 41,000 square miles of virgin richness, Liberia constitutes a prize which is frequently the subject of European chancelleries, particularly in the last quarter of the nineteenth century. The population of 2,000,000 Negroes lives almost entirely without work upon the natural bounty of the country.

Less March Territory.
The British colony of Sierra Leone bounds Liberia on the west and the French colony of Ivory Coast on the east. The Negro republic has suffered several territorial amputations on both of these frontiers, as well as the northern boundaries in the interior, which about 1840 the French Guinea, American surveyors are trying to straighten out the boundary disputes.

Since after 1840 has been taken by France and England down through the century century after America laid this political wait on the savage and hostile shores of Africa. While American liberal spirits and humanitarian motives marked the original repatriation of these freed American slaves, the action was not entirely without material aspects. Southern slave owners joined the northern abolitionists in establishing the colony. Henry Clay, who was a prominent promoter of the experiment, best revealed the motives for his support by the following words: "Of all classes of our population the most vicious is the free colored. Contaminated themselves, they extend vices all around them, and as a class are most depraved, corrupt, and abandoned."

The fact is that the freed blacks were the drug of the American slave market.

Many Shiploads of Them.
Supported by the American Colonization society and governed by directors, many shiploads of these American Negroes were deposited on the coast on land purchased from native chiefs. This was the foundation of Monrovia, the present capital of the country. For twenty-five years there was a continuous struggle against disease, hostile blacks and hostile whites, who still wage in slave raiding.

By reason of customs disputes with visiting vessels and America's refusal to acknowledge anything more than benevolent sympathy for the struggling private venture, the black colonists were forced on July 26, 1847, to declare political independence, which they did in a historic document attacking the American race prejudice almost as bitterly as the American declaration of Independence attacked the tyranny of England. Within two years Liberia was recognized by all European nations, but it was not until fifteen years later that America signed a formal treaty.

Since then the British have rushed their frontier to the Mado river on the west, and the French have moved up to the Cavalla river on the east. There has seldom been a year without more frontier disputes. Just as there are today. Money frequently figures in these disputes, always with the same result, that Liberia lost, but it was not until 1871 that the directors of that country took a dive in the troubled seas of high finance.

$500,000 Hillstone.
The Liberians borrowed $500,000 from England, part of which was repaid in the form of a navy—a second hand yacht discarded by Queen Victoria. The navy has long since sunk and dozens of its brightly uniformed admirals buried, but Liberia is still paying interest on the loan.

Today the country owes $1,500,000. England, Holland, and France each hold $400,000 of this, with America and Germany splitting the remaining $300,000. The debt is now pooled in an international consortium, which acts as receiver for Liberia's customs, from which the annual interest charges for the sinking fund are withheld. Before the war all the creditors were represented in this receivership, which in itself is a most expensive duty, but with the outbreak of the war the neutral American official was agreed upon to represent all creditors.

Under the American direction the interest charges have been paid when due for the first time in ten years, and several years' arrears taken up. If the present payments are maintained, the debt will be wiped out in twenty-five years.

Despite the financial entanglements the ever present menace of dismemberment of Liberia has continued to exist, but whether it continues to retain its political identity depends on whether it can put its house in order. It is in a terrible condition today.

NORTH SHORE'S SPEED NEMESIS KILLED IN CRASH

Accident Costs Life
Policeman Sage.

"Jim" Sage, motorcycle policeman in Lake Forest, known to nearly all the motorcycle motorists along the north shore, was killed yesterday afternoon when he crashed into the side of an automobile at Washington road and Rosemary avenue, Lake Forest.

Sage was married a little over a year ago to Miss Gudrun Imala, who is just come to the United States from Norway a short while before. The policeman gave her lessons in English and the romance resulted.

Just Got $300 Bonus.

During the world war Sage served as a corporal in the 1254 Infantry, 8th division, and on Saturday he received a $300 bonus from the state of Iowa. "I'm the happiest man in the world today," he said to Chief of Police James Gordon just a few minutes before he was killed. "The bonus paid me on my furlough. I've squandered every cent I've contracted since my marriage, and I've got a little left over. I'm going down now to make the first payment on a lot. The little home we came later."

He was whistling when he happened on to his machine. A few minutes later he was speeding toward a real estate office in south Lake Forest along Washington road. There is a steep hill just where Rosemary avenue crosses the road, and evidently he failed to notice a sedan being driven east by Mrs. E. G. Kaynoch of Lake Bluff. He had put on full speed to take the grade on high and crashed headlong into the side of the automobile.

He was rushed to Alice Home hospital, where he died a few minutes after reaching the institution.

WHO'S TO BLAME?

Held as indirectly responsible for the condition of Mrs. Barbara Simpson and her 25 year old daughter, Miss Freda, who are fighting death in St. Francis hospital as the result of an automobile accident early yesterday, Frank Catron and his wife were arrested while making moonshine in their home at 1802 Elysian avenue.

The women were occupants of a car which was struck at Ridge avenue and Pratt boulevard by an automobile which had been "borrowed" from a garage by Everett Helser, 7227 North Robey street, and Oscar Martin, 1718 Pratt boulevard. They fled following the crash but were later arrested.

The two men had been drinking. They told Acting Capt. James V. Larkin that they drove to the Catron place after taking the car, and produced a bottle of moonshine. In court Mrs. Simpson, of her daughter, Miss Larkin declared Mrs. Catron could

WHAT IT COSTS

Judge J. Fred Gilster opened his first day in the Speeders' court yesterday by levying the heaviest toll of fines the court has known since its inception. Before hearing a case Judge Gilster announced that up to forty miles an hour speeders would pay $4 a mile. Over forty miles an hour, the fine would be $250 and costs.

He kept his word, and before the day was over had heard 300 cases, had imposed over $2,500 in fines, and had sent six men to jail. Moonshiners who drive while intoxicated will receive no mercy, the new judge asserted. If convicted, it means the Bridewell.

Protect the Enamel
Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combant which contains harsh grit.

Let every child enjoy it

Pepsodent means more than prettier teeth. It means cleaner, safer teeth. Dentists advise that children use it from the time the first tooth appears. This as protection against troubles which most suffer otherwise.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

That Charm

Which comes from prettier teeth
Dainty people get it now

The day when teeth were dingy was gone by now for millions. You get prettier teeth wherever you look today.

A new way of teeth cleaning has come into vogue. Dainty people all over the world now employ it. You will also do so when you make this test.

That cloudy film

Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it now. It resists the old-way brushing, so much of it clings and stays.

Food stains, etc., discolor it. Then it forms dingy coats. That is why, in old days, most teeth showed less luster than now.

When also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed billions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Thus very few escaped tooth troubles, despite all care.

Dental science has in late years found ways to fight that film. One disintegrates the film at all stages of formation. The other removes it without harmful scouring.

All authorities proved these methods effective. Then a new-type tooth paste was created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent. Now careful people of some 50 nations employ it, largely by dental advice.

Also these effects

Pepsodent does two other things which research proved essential. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids.

It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Every use of Pepsodent gives manifold effect to these great natural tooth-protecting agents. Thus to millions of homes it has brought a new dental era.

ROSES
Fleischman

Chicago's Leading Florist

Has brought the price of flowers down within the reach of all

We realize that flowers have been high priced for a long time. When one must pay $6, $8, and $10 a dozen for roses it doesn't take any wide stretch of imagination to see they are way out of the reach of many people.

Perhaps we should not worry about this. With our reputation for handling only the finest flowers, we could sell them regardless of price. People who want the best, and are satisfied with nothing but the best, naturally come to Fleischman's.

But we would rather sell flowers to many people at a small price than sell to a few people at a larger price. By keeping the price of flowers down we please a host of people, make many new friends and customers, and in the end will probably make more money.

A year ago we began to sell flowers at a smaller profit than had ever before been attempted by any high class florist. We advertised and sold roses at $1.50 and $2 a dozen when they cost us almost that. The result was that we sold more flowers than ever before in our history.

And we are going right ahead with the same idea. We want Fleischman's to be known, not only as the place to get the finest flowers but also as the place where the finest flowers can be bought for the least amount of money.

If you are not acquainted with Fleischman's you should be. Watch for the advertisements announcing our special offerings. Drop into our store any time—whether you wish to purchase or not.

And when you want flowers remember that at Fleischman's you can get the finest flowers in the world—for considerably less than you must pay elsewhere.

EVER PLANS TO SELL COUNCIL OF SUBWAY PROBLEM

Outline Plans Within Next Two Weeks.

When and where the subway should be built will be revealed to the city council in a formal message within two weeks, Mayor Dever announced yesterday. Where they should be built, the message will not be discussed in detail, he declared.

The subway must await some indication of the result of negotiations with the existing transportation commission, which is believed to be the result of the decision, although neither the mayor nor his advisers would hint at the contents of the proposed message.

Two Projects United. Combined difficulties of subway construction and municipal acquisition of the surface and elevated lines make it impossible to discuss the projects separately, the mayor said. On other occasions he has stated "subways will be begun and, like completed within my administration."

It is said, appeal to some of the city's most powerful orators to the city council to solve the problem, declared Mayor Dever yesterday. "They must know how much is at stake with every phase of a subway program is the proposed subway."

Transitway Subway Planned. Only a few days ago the mayor issued a scheme to connect railway stations by a four and one-half mile transitway subway. This plan included the city of steam railway tracks, its electrification, the operation of rapid transit lines into and through the loop between all suburban and local stations served by the railroads. This plan was accomplished for from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000, it was estimated.

Under any plan which has been considered there has been no thought of payments when the purchase of the transitway is consummated, if ever, the mayor declared. "Every one knows that we cannot expect our citizens for these held by the bond or stock holders of the companies."

URGES VIADUCT ROAD SYSTEM TO RELIEVE LOOP

Sloan Estimates Cost at About $3,200,000.

While railroads are considering the relocation of their terminals and the straightening of the river, new traffic arteries can be cut through from the loop to the south side for approximately $3,200,000, Mayor Dever was told yesterday by John J. Sloan, president of the board of local improvements.

His scheme contemplates construction of one way double decked roadways around the La Salle and Dearborn street stations, with steel ramp approaches, and includes the improvement of La Salle, Dearborn, La Salle, and Federal streets and Plymouth court.

Independent of Other Plans.

With the exception of a few corners, the whole project is on the line of the present streets and can be accomplished irrespective of the ultimate development of the consolidated terminals or river straightening projects, Mr. Sloan points out.

Special assessment proceedings are being prepared by the improvement board's legal staff and will be filed in court as soon as completed. Should the railroads in the meantime agree on one of the several plans now offered by their engineers, the city's scheme will be abandoned. Officials of the New York Central railroad submitted their suggestions a few days ago, closely followed by the Rock Island railroad. The former line insists that the La Salle street station be moved back to Harrison street, while the latter will not sanction the change.

"They've been nine years making up their minds what they want to do," declared the mayor yesterday. "We've made up ours in that many weeks and we're not going to wait any longer. The loop needs other outlets and it must have them if business is not to be throttled. The railroads have until such time as the special assessments are confirmed to agree. If they haven't by that time we will go ahead."

Proposes One Way Street.

Mr. Sloan's plan provides for making Federal street a one way street, south-bound, with a ramp leading up to a viaduct at Taylor street, which would connect with the Roosevelt road viaduct. The new roadway would extend to 14th street and descend to the lower level on another ramp into Dearborn street.

On the other side of the Dearborn street station Plymouth court would become a one way street north bound, also coming to grade into Dearborn street, where Federal street and Plymouth court would merge into a two way thoroughfare to the city limits, opening Dearborn street from Lincoln park to the south side through the loop for traffic.

Sherman and La Salle streets would be elevated in similar fashion around the La Salle street station, with ramp approaches, and running into Roosevelt road, where traffic would be distributed east and west. This improvement, with the widened North La Salle street proposed and the completion of the new $2,500,000 bridge over the river at La Salle street, would add another outlet to the loop.

Seen as Aid to Property.

"There would be little if any interference with existing railroad tracks, and it would fit in with any terminal plans, as well as the river straightening, at a later date," said Mr. Sloan. "These upper roadways would be of special value to abutting property, in addition to furnishing immediately better facilities and greater accessibility to the conduct of business."

Immunity Grant Recalled.

That probably will be a big surprise to numerous persons, because it has heretofore been assumed that Lyons was exempt from indictment. He obtained immunity from Chief Justice

EXPERTS MUST ANSWER SUIT TO RECOVER FEES

Judge Lets Them Off Only on Bribery Points.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The Tribune yesterday forced the Thompson-Lundin experts almost into a corner where they will soon be compelled to fight to retain the $2,742,000 paid them in fees. Judge Hugo Friend of the Circuit court decided that two of these must answer, in part, the charges made in the suit which alleges they obtained their enormous fees through a conspiracy to cheat and defraud the city.

A sensational forecast that the experts may be indicted by the special grand jury came in the argument of Francis M. Lyons, attorney for Ernest H. Lyons and Edward G. Walter Jr. He made it plain they feared such action. In fact, it was because they feared indictment that Attorney Lyons fervently pleaded to be excused from answering the allegations in The Tribune suit.

That probably will be a big surprise to numerous persons, because it has heretofore been assumed that Lyons was exempt from indictment. He obtained immunity from Chief Justice

Covertly before testifying to the grand jury. "Do you question that grant of immunity?" asked Howard Ellis, attorney for The Tribune before the court. "Mr. Lyons was granted immunity from prosecution upon a charge of bribery only," replied Attorney Lyons. "The bill of the complainant in this case, in effect, charges both bribery and a conspiracy to do an illegal act. My clients asked to be relieved from answering because their answers might tend to incriminate them."

Asked by the court for his contention, Attorney Ellis replied: "If Mr. Lyons' clients fear they will reveal their guilt on bribery by answering our charge, why did not Arthur S. Merigold, another expert, who received about the same amount in expert fees, have that fear? He has answered and had more to fear in criminal prosecution than Lyons or Walter. I do not see that he is in a position different from that of these two experts."

Contention of Ellis.

"But if they fear they may reveal their guilt on bribery, I will not insist upon their answering certain charges made with reference to bribery, because the statute of limitations has not run against bribery. My view of the law is that they are still subject to a charge of bribery."

"But on conspiracy, the statutes have run to exempt the experts from prosecution on that charge and they should be compelled to answer every paragraph on the bill on conspiracy."

Attorney Lyons in reply. "It may be argued that the alleged conspiracy was a continuing conspiracy."

Lyons' View a Surprise.

That supplied another surprise interpretation of the expert scandal. Mr. Lyons did not explain how the conspiracy continued after the fees were obtained from the city treasury, but presumably he referred to the alleged contract which former President Michael J. Faherty of the board of local improvements made with the experts for their exclusive services for five years. That period has not yet elapsed.

The federal government decided in an opinion by the solicitor of the bureau of internal revenue approved by the attorney general of the United States, that the five year contract was "phony." That was the contract upon which the experts largely relied to gain exemption from income taxes, but the government decreed they must pay.

Judge Friend decided that the experts must answer certain paragraphs and would be excused from answering others. To a lay mind, the meaning of the decision is that the court ruled the experts are excused in answering the main points of the suit on bribery, but must answer everything else.

The court instructed Attorney Ellis and Attorney Lyons to prepare the order, but they failed to agree, and will appear in court again on the matter.

SPRING "BIG BILL" FOR SENATE, BUT DON'T GET FAR

Lesser Cogs' Boom Bares Breach with Small.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Some of the lesser satellites of the old city hall machine sought yesterday to spread a rumor that William Hale Thompson was about to enter the fight for the United States senatorship.

This effort didn't get far. Before the report had been in circulation more than a few hours, Thompson's closest friends and advisers said emphatically there was no foundation for it unless it was in the wishes of those who had started it. The former mayor is out of the city on a hunting trip and has been away since the middle of last week.

The basis of the conjecture concerning his intentions was that he would use the chance of a Deneen-McCormick fight splitting the anti-Thompson vote in Cook county and would be inclined to think that the Small support downstate would put him in the running.

Close Friends Deny It. Thompson's immediate friends met late yesterday with statements that he has definitely determined to remain out of the senatorial battle, no matter what form it takes. At a recent meeting where the talks became confidential Thompson is said to have expressed confidence in his being able to "win any office in Cook county" and his doubt that he could cover any more territory.

His hope—more or less secret—is that he will be able to stage a "come-back" in connection with the next mayoralty election. He believes that Deneen's saloon policy has been such a complete contrast to his own that the saloon element would flock to welcome his return and that he could take advantage of dissatisfaction in the Republican organization.

One other point was mentioned by his friends as important. Thompson is alleged at Small. This centers around the governor's failure to keep his promise to make William H. Malone of Park Ridge chairman of the state tax commission vice Percy B. Coffin, who went through the form of resigning that job in order to run Small's campaign and to quiet criticism of his conduct as chairman which came from the farmers.

Small Listens to Lunatic. Instead of putting Malone in the place promised for him, Small appointed Charles R. Francis as Coffin's successor on the commission chairmanship, by order of Fred Lundin. Several of Small's Chicago friends were irate when this happened, and among these was Thompson.

For this reason there is some acrimony between Thompson and Small, and while the former Chicago mayor intends to stand by the governor until after the primary, that friction, it is said, would add to his determination not to enter the ring next spring on the same ticket with Small. After the

CHURCH REFUSES AID PLEDGED FOR RUSSIAN FIELD

New York, Nov. 19.—A refusal to cooperate officially in raising the $21,000 pledged to the Russian new orthodox church for education of the ministry by Bishop Edgar Blake was embodied in a resolution introduced today at the annual meeting of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church and referred to the committee on foreign policy.

The sum was pledged by Bishop Blake and Dr. L. O. Hartman, editor of Zion's Herald. Part of the sum was to be used for the circulation of Bibles in Russia.

Bishop Blake said $27,000 of the pledged money had been raised and that the remainder also would be raised.

primary it is possible Thompson may demand a showdown from Small on the question of how long the governor is to be guided solely by Lundin's orders.

Consent Coffin Still Controls. That there was a shift in the plan to make Francis chairman of the tax commission and that J. D. Telford of Salem was put in that post, leaving Francis only a member, has not altered the situation. Chairman Telford is said to be "superannuated" and Small's critics contend that Coffin still controls the commission.

Ex-Gov. Deneen made his first public appearance since the announcement of his candidacy for senator came Sunday night when he spoke before the Metropolitan Community center, an organization of colored folk. He spoke again last night at the Englewood Y. M. C. A. Both engagements had been made prior to his entering the race for senator. His headquarters probably will be opened tomorrow in one of the downtown hotels.

Reports that Edward R. Litzinger, member of the board of review, will be a candidate for state's attorney were not confirmed.

UPHAM CERTAIN CHICAGO WILL GET C. O. P. GATHERING

Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican national committee, returned from Washington yesterday chock full of optimism over Chicago getting the Republican national convention in June. The selection will be made when the national committee meets on Dec. 11 and 12. Mr. Upham asserted that the naming of Chicago is practically settled.

As supporting his views came announcements that various candidates and others who play big parts in the party's national councils have made reservations at various hotels. It was pointed out that they would not have done so had they not been assured the convention would come to Chicago.

Senator Hiram Johnson has made tentative arrangements for quarters in the Elizabethan room at the Congress. The "Coolidge for President Club" has contracted for the Florence room in the same hotel. The arrangements were made by Dr. R. Howard Taylor, who said he was acting independently of any word from President Coolidge. Sen. Gov. Lowden has taken rooms at the Blackstone.

Frank Hitchcock, former postmaster general, and always a big figure in Republican pre-convention campaigns, was in Chicago yesterday. It was reported that he is out for Johnson.

ORGANIZE THIRD PARTY TO UNITE ALL RADICALS

Chicago Delegates Call Convention May 30.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

A new political party movement was inaugurated formally in Chicago yesterday. It begins its career with a name, purposely, although several names were suggested, notably "Progressive," "Farmer-Labor," "Socialists of America," and "United States Labor Party." The new political party was born.

A call for a national nominating convention of these organizations was held at St. Paul or Minneapolis, Minn., and was signed by the seven men and women who wrote the platform here yesterday.

Planks of the Platform. This platform, composed of four planks, which briefly declare the public control of natural resources, public ownership of railroads, canals, rivers, dams, and all means of communication; government banking, and "equal rights" will be carried to the national conference today for presentation to the "progressive conference" that opens a three day session there. Hopkins hopes the Omaha conference, which is said to have a Henry Ford background, will fall in line with the principles promulgated here.

The national convention will be open to all comers, including Ford and United States Senators La Follette of Wisconsin and Borah of Idaho, Mr. Hopkins said.

The Omaha conference was called by Roy M. Harrop, chairman of the progressive party of Nebraska, who

ORGANIZE THIRD PARTY TO UNITE ALL RADICALS

Chicago Delegates Call Convention May 30.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

A new political party movement was organized formally in Chicago yesterday. It begins its career with a name, purposely, although several names were suggested, notably "The Farmer-Labor."

Organization of existing minor political groups and radical groups is the aim of the movement. It is the purpose of the party to unite the various groups and radical groups of the city and state.

At a meeting of the party yesterday, the following platform was adopted: "We are for a national nomination of these organizations to be held at St. Paul or Minneapolis in 1924. It was issued and signed by the party members and women who wrote the platform here yesterday."

Platform of the Party. The platform, composed of four points, which briefly declare: "We are for a national nomination of these organizations to be held at St. Paul or Minneapolis in 1924. It was issued and signed by the party members and women who wrote the platform here yesterday."

FATE OF CHINA HANGS ON BATTLE OUTSIDE CANTON

BY J. B. POWELL

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Editor.)
(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)

SHANGHAI, Nov. 19.—At Canton a most serious and probably a decisive battle is in progress between Sun Yat Sen and his former lieutenant, Gen. Cheng Chung Ming.

Petty fighting and skirmishing has now been in progress in the Canton and Kwangtung district for more than a year. This has paralyzed business in Canton, China's second largest city and trading center, but it is believed here that the next few days will see the control of south China settled.

Meaning of Victory.

In case Dr. Sun is defeated, it probably will mean his definite elimination as a disturbing element in the Chinese situation. If he is victorious in the next few days, it doubtless will mean a complete re-opening of the long fight between the north and south. Dr. Sun already has announced his intention of advancing on Peking against President Tiao Kun.

The fight between north and south China started six years ago. Dr. Sun organized an independent military government in Canton and started a campaign against the north. His campaign against the north failed and Dr. Sun himself was forced to flee for his life two years ago when Gen. Cheng rebelled and forced him out. Dr. Sun escaped to Shanghai on a British ship. About a year ago he returned to Canton with the help of troops recruited from the neighboring province of Yunnan and renewed his fight against Gen. Cheng.

FATE OF CHINA

Fighting between the factions of north and south China is now going on about Canton. The winner will be almost sure to march on the Tiao Kun military presidency at Peking.

How to Business.

The fighting swayed back and forth during the last year. It practically destroyed business in south China and caused a slump in all business and property interests through attempts to escape Dr. Sun's taxation schemes to finance his revolutions.

The defeat or success of Dr. Sun in the present battle also will have a bearing on China's relations with Soviet Russia, since the southern leader a year ago concluded an agreement with Mr. Joffe, the Russian envoy to China, providing for China's recognition of Moscow. The agreement is still in effect as far as Canton is concerned. It recently has been reported that Soviet representatives have been in Canton watching the progress of the situation.

OPEN QUARTERS FOR RELIEF OF GERMAN BABIES

BY LOUISE JAMES BAROULT

Headquarters have been established in Chicago at 10 North Clark street for the American committee which was organized a few weeks ago to raise funds to prevent starvation among children in Germany this winter.

Frank J. Reeler is executive secretary, and while no general relief campaign will be started before next month the committee is working every day, acquainting different organizations and business men with the plans for the work and preparing the way for an intensive campaign.

How Money Will Be Spent.

This fund will be administered by the American Friends service committee, which will have exclusive charge of purchasing, transporting and distributing all the food supplies.

It was through investigation for the American Friends service committee and representatives of the German government that the alarming situation was made known to the public. The survey made not long ago showed that 2,500,000 undernourished German children are in need of relief. More than that number may have to be fed before the winter is over if conditions grow worse.

Maj. Gen. Henry T. Allen is chairman of the national executive committee, and he is regarded as peculiarly qualified by his long experience as commander of the American forces on the Rhine to take charge of the relief work.

$10,000,000 Will Be Needed.

The German government is co-operating in every possible way. It will furnish part of the food, in addition to meeting all insurance, warehouse, and other overhead charges. To meet the minimum needs, $10,000,000 will be required from American charity.

"How does it happen," Gen. Allen was asked, "that you, a commander of American soldiers in Germany, are heading this committee to feed German children?"

Gen. Allen answered: "America never waged war on children."

All checks should be made payable to Herman Waldeck and sent to the Continental and Commercial National bank, Chicago.

PC-ICE SU-PECT LEON WEEKS WAS HOLDUP VICTIM

Discovery that Leon Weeks, artist-yachtsman, displayed a large roll of bills in a restaurant on the night that he mysteriously disappeared caused police to form the theory yesterday that he was murdered while resisting a holdup.

Continued dragging of Belmont harbor, where Weeks said he was going after leaving a party, has revealed no trace of the missing man. On account of the uneven topography of the harbor, grappling hooks might easily slip over the body should it be in the water, it was said.

The proprietor of the Lake Shore restaurant, 423 North State street, told of Weeks "flashing" the roll of bills. The yachtsman, he said, dropped into the place for a lunch some time after midnight. A thorough search of all craft moored in the harbor was requested by Commodore Sheldon P. Clark of the Chicago Yacht club, on the possibility that Weeks was killed and his body secreted on one of the yachts.

Why hasn't he married?

HE LIKES pretty women—no doubt about that. He has had a better opportunity to meet them, all over the world, than any other marriageable man in the world. Why hasn't the Prince of Wales married? There have been articles on this question; the WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION wanted an answer to the question. You will find the answer in the December number on page 5.

In 30 minutes this can be yours

Just the graceful, charming sort of jacket that every woman loves. "But too expensive", you exclaim. "I haven't the money to buy it, nor the time to make it"

All right... one piece of material... 36 inches wide... the simplest kind of cutting and needlework... and it's yours. Time, exactly 30 minutes... See page 84

Why has the Companion become the foremost institution for women—directed by a woman?

THE two paragraphs above help to explain why the WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION has gained more new readers in the past five years than any other publication in its field.

THE Prince of Wales is entertaining... but to send a special correspondent to the English court to find out the one thing that most interests women... why he hasn't married... that's unusual entertainment... that's the COMPANION touch.

A pretty jacket is a nice enough thing... the store windows and fashion pages are full of pretty jackets... they merely stir a want without satisfying it... but a pretty jacket which any woman, anywhere, can have... in thirty minutes... in thirty minutes, mind you... again the COMPANION touch.

There is a big new serial by Edna Ferber in this December number; and a whole page of presents that can be made out of nothing more expensive than cleverly fashioned paper.

There is a Christmas story by Juliet Wilbor Tompkins that will put a catch in your throat. And a booklet (offered on page 52) wherein 50 women tell 50 different ways by which they have picked up extra money.

The highly romantic and the severely practical... the love of the big ideal and the careful counting of the extra penny... these are the magnificent contrasts that are the modern woman.

The editor of the WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION is a woman. The institution she has built is a product of feeling, fully as much as of thinking—an instinctive mingling of the ideal and the real, which so closely mirrors a woman's life that it has become a part of two million lives.

GERMANY'S BEST 'PUTSCHER' SAYS TREATY MUST GO

Ehrhardt Declares for Dictatorship.

BY LARRY RUE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1923, By The Chicago Tribune.)
MUNICH, Bavaria, Nov. 19.—(Tribune Radio.)—In Bavaria's running revolutionary contest Private Hitler has been definitely eliminated and now Capt. Ehrhardt appears the next most likely "putscher" leader.

Capt. Ehrhardt is experienced in leading "putsches," having participated in the Kapp "putsch," and, having been duly arrested, served six months in the Leipzig prison, then escaped, and since has been helping the Bavarian nationalists. Now he is here to receive the keys of the city and other martial honors, despite the fact that Berlin has hopefully plastered the police stations in Germany with offers of 100 gold marks ($25) for information leading to his arrest.

Capt. Ehrhardt, who has formed organizations throughout Germany, has taken an outstanding place among the "putsch" leaders by his recent harangue to the Hitlerites, whom he invited after Herr Hitler's failure to join his movement, for which he promised certain success.

Opposes Versailles Treaty.
Capt. Ehrhardt is an exceptionally good looking man about 35 years old, with an immaculate mustache, penetrating eyes, and manners of an Austrian.

In an interview with THE TRIBUNE, Capt. Ehrhardt began explaining that originally he had placed himself at the disposition of the republic, but seeing the utter futility of this form of government, he came to the conclusion that the misery of Germany was due to two things: One, the Versailles treaty, and two, the Weimar constitution. The captain asserted that the Weimar constitution must be destroyed.

Favors Nationalist Dictatorship.
The captain asserted it was necessary to establish a nationalist dictatorship strong enough to enforce its decisions, no matter how unpleasant they were upon the workers, industrialists, and whole people.

At the present time it is impossible to organize an army, but it must be done eventually. The foreign policy of the new dictatorship, he asserted, could be based on former President Wilson's fourteen points, the principles upon which the armistice was signed.

Capt. Ehrhardt said he would oppose any form of separatism and he would use his brigade to this end. This was directed at the Catholics here, who are suspected of fostering a hope for establishing a Danube federation with Austria and Hungary, through the support of France and the Vatican.

We are against any Danube federation. Capt. Ehrhardt added emphatically.

He supports Herr Hitler's opposition to Jews and Socialists.
"We are monarchists, but the time is not yet ripe to set up a king," he concluded. "It will be deplorable if the return of former Crown Prince Frederick William precipitates the question now."

to operate in Germany, a government spokesman told THE TRIBUNE today. Allied officers are welcome to carry on their work of checking up Germany's military preparations and construction of war material but the German government does not feel it can guarantee the personal safety of the members of the control commission if they insist on wearing their military uniforms during their inspection tours.

The Tribune understands that if the members of the commission are willing to work in civilian clothes they will be safe anywhere in Germany except possibly in Bavaria, where the illegal monarchist organizations are the strongest.

The German government announced that there is no basis for reports that two French military control officers were arrested in Leipzig by German police. No allied military control officers are working in Germany now.

Rhinelanders Go Home.

Hopes of reaching an agreement on economic autonomy for the Rhineland, seven members of the Rhineland committee of fifteen tonight sought a truce for Cologne. Among the number was Burgomaster Adenauer of Cologne, leader of the group which demands separation from Prussia as well as autonomy.

At midnight the cabinet broke up without taking a decision. The members are determined to wait for the decision of the party leaders tomorrow, when the re-ignition faces down.

The Rhinelanders were disgusted and their retreat was caused by the severe objections of the state ministers of Prussia, Hesse, Baden, and Bavaria, all of whom objected strenuously to complete economic autonomy because of loss to their coffers. Dr. Stresemann urged economic autonomy for the Rhineland at a meeting of the foreign affairs committee of the Reichstag and again at the cabinet session. He proposed to empower the Rhineland committee to deal with France regarding the resumption of work.

Let Occupied Areas Support Self.

The chancellor declared the government was not turning the Ruhr and Rhineland over to the French, but was insisting that the people themselves support their unemployment. The burden of the feeding problem will fall

DEMANDS BRITISH TARIFF WALL TO KEEP OUT FRENCH

BY THOMAS RYAN.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1923, By The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Nov. 19.—(Tribune Radio.)—Prime Minister Baldwin's opening campaign speech today was a call to arms against French competition with British trade.

Commenting on David Lloyd George's remark, "We need protection not against the French mills, but against French militarism," Mr. Baldwin said:

"I agree; but that is no reason why we should ignore the damage that the French, Belgian, and German mills can do. Why should the whole burden of the shortage of trade fall on our shoulders? Blows hit us more severely than any other people. France and Belgium and even Germany have not any comparable unemployment.

Belgium Steel Is Cheaper.

France has been able largely to repair its devastated territory. With the introduction of new machinery she has recovered and is able to become a potential competitor of the deadliest kind. Belgium can underbid the British steel manufacturers by 15 (3.6) a ton. If that is allowed to continue it will cripple our industries permanently.

"We do not intend that competition shall exploit Alsace, Lorraine, and other European mineral fields to our detriment. These things do not call for talk but action."

Cannot Await Europe's Settlement.
"We cannot await the settlement of Europe. We must look after ourselves. I am not content to wait until our industries are crippled under my eyes by countries who have fenced in themselves with prohibitive tariffs and who will be able to ignore the damage that the French, Belgian, and German mills can

How to make Good Coffee
NUMBER IX

The so-called base metals and coffee are enemies. Good results may be obtained by using an earthenware pot or one in which the metal is covered, such as agate ware or granite ware. If your coffee begins to show gray or muddy, examine your pot. It may be that the enamel is broken and the coffee is coming in contact with the iron underneath.

People judge the excellence of your table by the coffee you serve. With Yuban you may always be certain of their approval. Its particularly mellow, rich flavor was selected by a great coffee merchant from all the coffees of the world.

He would have been glad enough of a sheet of Mosinee to do his figuring on—a lot handier than the back of a shovel. Many modern business houses, in fact, use the standard Mosinee sheet for their letterheads, envelopes, and other things nobody used to make out of wrapping paper.

But Mosinee's one big, outstanding work in life is protection. Mosinee is built to

"The Lives We Elbow But Can Never Touch"

THE age of indifference has passed—one half of the world is beginning to learn how the other half lives.

We are becoming curious about people—about the motives that actuate them, the impulses that move them, the forces that Nature awakens within them.

The word on every one's lips is, "Why?"

The answer is to be found only in the stories that people tell about themselves, revelations of self that analyse the flimsy fabric we call civilization.

Payrolls are no longer expressed in terms of figures in a ledger.

The employer is no longer revered blindly as one who lives on the hill.

The waiter who serves you; the boy who carries your messages; the girl who transcribes your dictation; the bus conductor who accepts your dime—

Would it startle you to know that the waiter once killed a man in a lover's quarrel in far off Czecho-Slovakia; that the messenger boy is planning to avenge a sister's honor; why the stenographer no longer wears her engagement ring; why the bus conductor carries under his coat a Carnegie medal?

"The lives we elbow but can never touch," Basil King once said of them, but that was before the advent of TRUE STORY with its lightning-like revelations of human nature—the human nature that you, as employer or as an employee, must reckon with.

That's why TRUE STORY'S one million three hundred and twenty-five thousand circulation touches all kinds and classes of people—why you'll find it in the reading-rooms of exclusive clubs, read by those who travel on limited trains, on the dressing-room tables of theatrical stars, in the subway, bus or elevated—everywhere—among all kinds and classes—one half of the world trying to find out how the other half lives.

Webster defines life as a continuous possibility of sensation. Those who possess this possibility are alive; those who don't possess it are nearing dissolution.

It is the very essence of this possibility that TRUE STORY distills from the lives of you, of me and the other fellow, presenting a cup that cheers and stimulates.

Is it then any wonder that TRUE STORY has, in four short years, made magazine history?

Is it to be marveled at that this one, single magazine has set a pace that no other has ever equalled and which, in all likelihood, will never be surpassed?

It is not enough to say that TRUE STORY was an idea that "caught on," not enough to add that, after all, the field was "ripe" for just such a magazine.

We may not analyse TRUE STORY'S phenomenal success in terms that were ever used before. It can be explained only as truth itself is vital, fundamental and seeking to prevail, in a civilization that was starving for it and now, with the cup to its lips, drinks great, copious draughts from the Pierian Spring.

True Story Magazine A Great Moral Force Read These Letters

UNITED STATES PENITENTIARY, Atlanta, Ga.
"I am glad to say that the 'TRUE STORY' magazine is one of the most popular and helpful periodicals received at this institution. Owing to the fact that we receive only a few copies, we are never able to supply the demand that is made upon us. If you will kindly send us back numbers of this splendid magazine, I assure you that the same will be greatly appreciated, and I believe will prove a blessing to the many men here."

—Rev. J. A. Sewell, Chaplain.
CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST, New York City.
"Speaking as a minister of the gospel, I can only say that, in my humble opinion, your magazine is an act of obedience to the first law ever articulated by the lips of Omnipotence: LET THERE BE LIGHT."

"Speaking as a reader, I must admit that I get more real entertainment out of True Story than out of any other review I know."

"True Story is making not only a good business move, but also a real contribution to the sum total of human happiness by its policy in offering real money for real stories." Yours for real truth, —Rev. Paul L. Buha.

"As a constant reader, for many years, of what I would call the purifying magazine, permit me to recommend your praiseworthy publication."

"It is my sincere conviction that 'True Story' is the most uplifting force in this country."

"If each and every man and woman would only read this magazine, not only as a delightful spiritual recreation, but as a moral guide, the social ailments that torture mankind would be abrogated."

Very truly yours,
—Rev. P. Jassinowsky, New York City

A Correction!

In an advertisement in Tuesday Morning's New York Times the following statement was made by a firm of contemporary publishers, speaking for their magazine:

"This is more newsstand circulation than any other magazine at any price."

To be correct this statement should have read "This is more newsstand circulation than any other magazine at any price with the sole exception of True Story Magazine."

The publishers of the other magazine quote 1,034,000 copies of the December issue as the total number printed for newsstands.

Of True Story Magazine 1,250,266 copies of the December issue have been delivered to the newsstands, giving True Story a lead of 216,266 copies in newsstand distribution over its nearest competitor.

The figures regarding True Story's distribution in this advertisement are correct and true.

Roasting Guinea Hen

One may get roast guinea hen with a great number of seasoning vegetables and no water, but with a little extra fat, and get quite an ideal or spit-roasted effect. Or if you have a deep broiling oven and know how to manage the heat in that, a spit-roasted effect may be secured.

Clean and prepare like any chicken for roasting. If a dressing is used, the entire dressing is best because it does not absorb the juices of the fowl, but does season it. When no dressing is used, put an onion or two and celery leaves in the roasting pan, rubbing the inside first quite carefully with a small amount of salt, and using none besides. For further seasonings prepare a collection of chopped or finely sliced vegetables for the roasting pan, including carrot, onion, celery, green pepper, and a sour apple. If you have a little candied ginger root, chop and use that and the flavor of a clove of garlic used will blend its flavor with the other items and be best in the final perfection. Or rub the fowl with the cut end of a clove of garlic just before putting it to cook.

A thin blanket of salt pork may be put over the fowl, then set it on a small rack over the vegetables, pour over it a fourth of a cup of hot fat, which may be partly salt pork fat. Put into a genuinely hot broiling oven and lower the heat to medium or a little lower. When one side is browned turn with a quarter of a cup of boiling water and turn. When browned on all sides baste every ten minutes from broil to roast, but use another quarter of a cup of boiling water in the second turning. Do not close door of broiling oven. Cook a two pound hen for about two hours in this gentle fashion.

You may have to appear exaggeratedly straight backed at first, if you will dictate terms of straight behavior every time you think of it, and think often. Then gradually it will be much more comfortable to sit and stand that way than the other. Sleep without a pillow for a while, and to lumber up

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Just Before Christmas

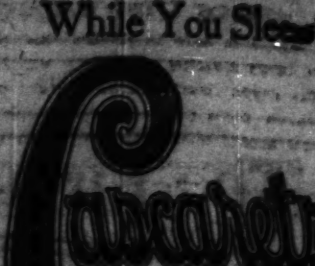

It was just before Christmas and I was in a large department store conversing with one of my girl friends who was a clerk in that store. Noticing some towels displayed on the counter, I remarked: "O, what awful towels! Aren't they ridiculous? Just then the clerk left to wait on a customer and my sister, who was with me, said: "For heaven's sake, keep quiet. Louise is giving you some of those towels for Christmas."

When the Bank Was Opened

I had secured a small savings bank and into it was dropped occasional nickels and dimes for our small son. One day I picked up the bank and found it to be quite heavy, so I took it to the savings department, expecting to add quite a sum to my son's account. A number of bystanders were present, so you can imagine their amusement and my embarrassment when the bank was opened and out came four toy tin snails, several telephone dials, five safety pins, and 37 cents in change.

IMPROVEMENT IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS PUTS GRAINS UP

BY CHARLES MICHAELS

A marked change for the better in the foreign political situation, with an advance of 10 points in sterling exchange from the inside figures of the day, was largely responsible for grain markets showing a firmer undertone than of late and with short covering and commission houses buying the corn was at the top, with net gains of 1/2¢ on wheat, 1/4¢ on corn and 1/4¢ on oats. Rye was unchanged to 1/2¢ higher.

December wheat at one time broke sharply, selling down to 1 1/2¢, a new low on the present downturn, and was within 1/2¢ of the inside figure of the month. Elevator interests absorbed the offerings on the break, and a bulge of 1/2¢ from the bottom followed, the price being at 1 1/2¢ at 10:30 a. m. while May was at 1 1/4¢. Good trading orders to buy 1 1/2¢ were in evidence at 1:05, but were not filled.

Winnipeg shows strength. Winnipeg showed independent strength from the start, with exporters against sales of Manitoba abroad on direct sales, gaining 1/2¢. Liverpool was 1/2¢ higher, with December the selling equal to 1 1/2¢ at the last on the basis of $4.30 for sterling, compared with 1 1/2¢ with exchange at $4.40 on Oct. 11. 1 1/2¢ with exchange at $4.40 on Oct. 11. 1 1/2¢ with exchange at $4.40 on Oct. 11.

Better tone in corn. At no time were corn futures lower than the finish on Saturday. Sentiment was somewhat less bearish due to the strength in hogs and the wheat sent out by exporters to hold the latter back in the country. An easing of 1/2¢ in the sample market had little effect and toward the last there was a gain of 1/2¢ on short covering which carried prices up to 1 1/2¢ at the close. The finish at the top at 1 1/2¢ for December and 1 1/4¢ for May.

Outside markets are receiving a liberal run of new corn, Minnesota having 133 cars, which graded No. 2 or better. Some of the local traders who are bearish accepted profits on the early break. Numerous trading orders to buy May were found on the decline.

Good prices for hay. Good timothy and clover mixtures sold well, while prices were not taken as readily as of late, and buyers were slow to pay top prices. Arrivals were 67 cars timothy; alfalfa, 1 car; South Dakota, 2 cars, and packing, 1 car. Straw, 7 cars. Prices follow:

BONUS AND TAX CUTS POSSIBLE, ADVOCATES SAY

Cap Contention of Secretary Mellon.

ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—(Spre-)
The world war soldiers continue their bonus and the whole country is agitated by the question of the bonus, according to the bonus advocates, who take sharp issue with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's contention that a properly financed country would not need virtually the entire surplus of government revenue at present tax rates.

Leaders of the fight for the bonus plan to demand a tax reduction of at least $100,000,000 and may insist upon it approximating the $225,000,000
Mellon says is possible if no bonus is passed.

Johnson Hits Mellon Argument.
Senator Johnson (Rep., Cal.), candidate for the Republican nomination for president, took a shot at the Mellon argument today, saying:

"It is too late now for the responsible leaders of the Republican party to say that the bonus is economically unsound. The Republican administration pledged to the passage of the bonus bill, and that pledge must be kept."
Mellon advocates are not impressed with Secretary Mellon's contention that making fund should be provided to care of bonus certificates instead of the bonus plan, and that the cost of the bonus plan would be a good plan would range from $250, $300,000,000 annually over the twenty year period of twenty years.

SUES STAR. Deely, who claims to be former husband of Barbara La Marr.

They point out that the bonus bill passed by the late President Harding did not contemplate setting up a sinking fund at once and that the average cost over a twenty year period, not including the meeting of maturities on bonus certificates at the end of the twenty year period, would be much less than $100,000,000 a year. Under the estimate of the senate finance committee, the cost the first year would be $45,440,889, while the average over a period of twenty years would be less than $60,000,000 annually.

At the end of the twenty year period, however, there would remain a balance of $2,708,817,811, which the senate committee intended should be used gradually during the subsequent twenty years. Under the bonus ways and means committee estimate the cost the first year would be $74,273, and the average annual cost over the twenty year period less than $80, $90,000.

Refinancing of Certificates.
Under the house committee estimate, however, certificates totaling $2,100,000,000 would mature at the end of twenty years and necessarily would have to be refinanced in some manner. The bill, as passed by congress, provides for such refinancing
under the reports of the two committees show that congress has no idea how it should be done.

Advocates of the bonus believe that under the proposed bill payments of the first few years will not be enough to interfere with a program of tax reduction almost as extensive as that proposed by Secretary Mellon, and that the ultimate financing of the bonus can be left to the future.
The fact that the secretary's experts are themselves during the consideration of the 1923 revenue act to be had before the senate enters into the present situation.

What Congress May Do.
Congress, realizing that the treasury department may not be strictly accurate, is more likely to take the bill by the horns and chop off $50,000,000 or $100,000,000 and also pass the bonus bill, allowing the financing of the future obligations to take care of itself.

What treasury officials are afraid of is the reduction of something like $100,000,000 will carry out the Mellon recommendations with respect to income taxes, but will reduce the proportionate decrease in tax rates on large incomes. The treasury department shows that the loss in government revenue from reductions in sur-taxes on incomes in excess of $50,000 amount to about $70,000,000, while the loss from the reduction in normal taxes and the reduction in taxes on earned income for taxpayers amount to about $15,000,000 additional.
President Coolidge before completing the message to congress is anxious to know just how the Mellon tax program has been received in the agricultural regions of the country. The comment of the farm papers is being watched with great interest. It was stated today by the White House.
